CHRISTMAS AROUND THE WORLD

Christmas around the world

We all wait for Christmas holidays to decorate the Christmas tree, to cut the Yule log, to win the lucky coin, and to eat turkey, but there are different customs in every country.

In Finland you can go sledding with reindeer and you can stay in an igloo. In Italy, they believe that there is a good witch (Befana) that flies above the houses on the fifth of January. The kids leave their shoes outside.

In Catalonia, Spain they dress up a log with a hat and a blanket and they draw a happy face. Also, the kids leave their shoes, which are filled with carrots and hay, outside for the three Magi's horses.

Finally, in Albania they call their Santa Claus "Babagjysh" and they exchange presents on 31st December, because they believe the presents will bring them luck for the new year.

CHRISTMAS AROUND THE WORLD

Christmas around the world

We are all excited about Christmas. Each country has a different way to celebrate Christmas. Today we are going to talk about Australia and China.

In Australia they celebrate the Christmas day and the New Year's Eve in summer. They even go to the beach to party and welcome the new year. They don't wear warm clothes, they wear swimsuits and they don't go sledding, they go waterskiing. Santa swims in the sea with the sharks.

In China, they decorate their Christmas trees with paper chains, paper flowers and lanterns. The kids hang up cotton socks so that Dunche Lao Ren (their Santa Claus) will come and bring their presents. Also, the Chinese often exchange apples because they symbolise peace and harmony.

To sum up, we believe that those traditions are amazing and we would love to try them out.

But in the end he was found by his mom who left Florida and went to New York. And in between there are funny moments in the movie.

This movie is about a kid named Kevin. Him and his family decided to travel to New York for Christmas, but in the process of leaving home, his family forgot to take him with them. As he was alone at his house, 2 not really intelligent thieves decided to make the decision to break in to his home. But Kevin, was very smart and managed to get rid of them, before his parents came home.

I really liked this movie and the fact that Kevin was really good when he played that role, was some of the best I've ever seen.

THE GRINCH

by Nicol Rokkou

The Grinch tells a story of a cynical grump who goes on a mission to steal Christmas, only to have his heart changed by a young girl's generous holiday spirit. Funny, heartwarming, and visually stunning, it's a universal story about the spirit of Christmas and the indomitable power of optimism. Academy Award nominee Benedict Cumberbatch lends his voice to the infamous Grinch, who lives a solitary life inside a cave on Mt. Crumpet with only his loyal dog, Max, for company. With a cave rigged with inventions and contraptions for his day-to-day needs, the Grinch only sees his neighbors in Whoville when he runs out of food. Each year at Christmas they disrupt his tranquil solitude with their increasingly bigger, brighter, and louder celebrations. When the Whos declare they are going to make Christmas three times bigger this year, the Grinch realizes there is only one way for him to gain some peace and quiet: he must steal Christmas. To do so, he decides to pose as Santa Claus on Christmas Eve, even going so far as to trap a lackadaisical misfit reindeer to pull his sleigh. Meanwhile, down in Whoville, Cindy-Lou, a young girl overflowing with holiday cheer, plots with her gang of friends to trap Santa Claus as he makes his Christmas Eve rounds so that she can thank him for helping her overworked single mother. As Christmas approaches, however, her good-natured scheme threatens to collide with the Grinch's more nefarious one. Will Cindy-Lou achieve her goal of finally meeting Santa Claus? Will the Grinch succeed in silencing the Whos' holiday cheer once and for all?

MICKEY MOUSE

Mamolis Bekas

Mickey Mouse is an American cartoon character co-created in 1928 by Walt Disney. The longtime icon and mascot of the Walt Disney Company, Mickey is an anthropomorphic mouse who typically wears red shorts, large shoes, and white gloves. He is often depicted alongside his girlfriend Minnie Mouse, his pet dog Pluto, his friends Donald Duck and Goofy, and his nemesis Pete.

Mickey was created as a replacement for a prior Disney character, Oswald the Lucky Rabbit. The character was originally to be named "Mortimer Mouse", until Disney's wife, Lillian, suggested "Mickey". Mickey first appeared in two 1928 shorts Plane Crazy and The Gallopin' Gaucho (which were not picked up for distribution) before his public debut in Steamboat Willie (1928). The character went on to appear in over 130 films, mostly shorts as well as features such as Fantasia (1940). Since 1930, Mickey has been featured extensively in comic strips (including the Mickey Mouse comic strip, which ran for 45 years) and comic books (such as Mickey Mouse). The character has also been featured in television series such as The Mickey Mouse Club (1955–1996).

Inspired by such silent film personalities as Charlie Chaplin and Douglas Fairbanks, Mickey is traditionally characterized as a sympathetic underdog who gets by on pluck and ingenuity in the face of challenges bigger than himself. The character's depiction as a small mouse is personified through his diminutive stature and falsetto voice, the latter of which was originally provided by Walt Disney. Though originally characterized as a cheeky lovable rogue, Mickey was rebranded over time as a more conventionally friendly protagonist, usually seen as a spirited, yet impulsive hero.

Mickey also appears in media such as video games as well as merchandising and is a meetable character at the Disney parks. He is one of the world's most recognizable and universally acclaimed fictional characters. Ten of Mickey's cartoons were nominated for the Academy Award for Best Animated Short Film, one of which, Lend a Paw, won the award in 1941. In 1978, Mickey became the first cartoon character to have a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame.

Demon Slayer follows Tanjiro Kamado, a kind-hearted boy whose family is slaughtered by demons. His sister, Nezuko, survives but is transformed into a demon. Tanjiro becomes a Demon Slayer to find a cure for her. Along his journey, he joins the Demon Slayer Corps, fighting powerful demons and uncovering dark secrets about their origins. Tanjiro meets allies like Zenitsu and Inosuke, and faces the demons' leader, Muzan Kibutsuji. Through intense battles, personal growth, and determination, Tanjiro strives to protect his loved ones and defeat the demon threat.
